PRICE 2 CENTS

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherry bark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, hacking chronic coughs, bronchitis and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat, with loss of voice. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-over coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis, inflammation of stomach. It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of prostatic (vesical) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

COMMUNICATED.

"MOUNT VERNON."

Stately and grand on the beautiful heights, Looking down on a quiet, peaceful river, Stands a mansion that thrills American hearts And will live in their memories forever.

Like pilgrims traveling to a shrine, They come from regions east and west; On eaved around they love to stand And be Mount Vernon's honored guest.

Emperor, prince and peasant alike Have come and payed homage to thee, And still they are coming, a generous host, From countries far over the sea.

Gaze on the Alps or Waterloo's mound, Visit great Pyramids, Paris or Rome; There's no inspiration in all these scenes Like viewing Mount Vernon and Washington's tomb.

May the roses and magnolias bloom, The mocking birds sing out their lay; Oh could we bid the hands of time And at their threshold always stay.

George Washington—the name so dear— Thy good influence will never cease; A man that lived the golden rule— Was first in war and first in peace.

Stories are told of this honored man, How by his might this land is free; But the one that so inspires the youth Was the love for mother and the cherry tree.

Sleep on, intrepid warrior, sleep, No more in strife to wield the sword; But rest on laurels that were won At Yorktown, Trenton and Valley Forge.

Brave daughter of the sunny South, To you we bow in admiration; We bless your name, Ann Cunningham, Who saved Mount Vernon for the nation.

Mount Vernon, may you ever stand, A sacred and historic spot; And may your fame be known abroad, When other scenes are all forgot.

JOHN C. STEELMAN, 714 Queen street.

Sufferers who say they have tried everything without benefit are the people we are looking for. We want them to know from glad experience that Ely's Cream Balm will conquer Cold in the Head, Hay Fever, and obstructed form of Catarrh. THE GIPSY AND BROWN TAIL MOTHS.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette: Blacksburg, Va., Jan. 20, 1910.

Your readers will, no doubt, call to mind the article on gipsy and brown-tail moths that appeared last winter. We wish to further emphasize the necessity of careful inspection and close attention to this matter.

These are two of the worst insect pests that are liable to be introduced from abroad. They defoliate and kill not only fruit trees, but all kinds of forest trees, etc. They have cost the New England States and the national government hundreds of thousands of dollars already and every possible means should be adopted to prevent them from getting a foothold in this state.

We have just received a letter, which shows that these insects are already beginning to appear in stock from abroad, imported to the northern states this season. It is also implied that some of the brokers and importers are unwilling to notify the inspectors of the receipt of foreign shipments. We hope that Congress will pass a law which will require thorough inspection and destruction of stock affected by these dangerous pests.

Early in January of last year we were advised of the finding of nests of brown-tail moth on seedlings purchased from abroad. Realizing the seriousness of importing injurious insects and plant diseases, we at once made a special effort to inspect all foreign shipments of nursery stock coming into this state, with the result that nests of the brown-tail moth were found on four different shipments. We are informed that a large number of nests were destroyed in a number of other states, also.

These common European insects have, fortunately, not yet become generally distributed in this country, they being still confined, so far as we can learn, to the New England States.

It is now about time for foreign importations of nursery stock to be arriving such as seedlings for propagating purposes, ornamental stock, green house plants, etc. We have recently been informed, from another state, that quantities of nests of the brown-tail moth have been found on rose stocks imported from France for green house purposes. From this you will see that it is equally important that all plants intended for green house purposes be as thoroughly inspected as other nursery stock.

We appreciate the assistance and cooperation in this work rendered by nurserymen last year, and now earnestly request that both nurserymen and owners of conservatories, greenhouses, and, in fact, every one who imports plants of any kind, advise us of the arrival of any such plants purchased from abroad, and hold the boxes unopened until we have them inspected. J. L. PHILLIPS, State Entomologist.
